The Stoughton Area Community Foundation...

exists to accept and distribute charitable contributions that will promote the betterment of the greater Stoughton Area and enhance the quality of life for its citizens.

What is the Community Foundation?

It is an expanding pool of charitable dollars donated by people willing to invest in the future of the Stoughton area.

The foundation has three main functions:

1. To professionally manage charitable gifts and provide grants in a manner consistent with the donors' specific and general interests;
2. To strengthen the nonprofit agencies and institutions which offer programs in education, social welfare, health care, the arts, community development, historic preservation and other fields;
3. To provide philanthropic opportunities by matching community needs with public and private responses to them.
